Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Gives a Lecture to PPRA 66 and 67

JAKARTA - All participants of the Regular Education Program (PPRA) Batch 66 and 67 were given a briefing by the Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono on Tuesday (21/5), at Gajah Mada Auditorium, Lemhannas RI. This directive aimed to equip the education participants with leadership values and characters.

"We hope that the teaching and learning process at this institution prioritizes the value of integrity as the basis," said Eko Margiyono. He emphasized that this value does not only apply to participants, but also to education providers. This can be achieved if all parties comply with the rules and uphold the integrity pact that has been signed.

During the education period, participants have the right to enjoy academic freedom in conveying their ideas, as long as it is within the ethics of communication. "The right of participants is to enjoy academic freedom in conveying their ideas in learning activities and still respecting communication ethics," Eko Margiyono added.

In addition to rights, participants have responsibilities, including complying with the rules, maintaining ethics in everyday life, upholding the reputation of Lemhannas RI, as well as understanding and complying with all applicable regulations.

Eko Margiyono also reminded that violations of the rules will be subject to sanctions, ranging from verbal and written reprimands, conditional or unconditional postponement of graduation, to dismissal or expulsion from the course, and declared failed to graduate. Therefore, he advised the participants to avoid any violations.

Lemhannas RI Organizes FGD on Strategies to Reduce Armed Conflict in Papua

JAKARTA - The Directorate of Defense, Security and Geography Studies of Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) entitled "Strategy to Reduce the Intensity of Armed Conflict in Papua" on Monday (27/5), at Kresna Room, 4th Floor of Astagatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

Deputy for Strategic Studies, Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P., chaired the FGD stating that the intensity and frequency of armed conflict in Papua has increased in recent months. "A more in-depth approach, acceptable to the Papuan people, is needed to reduce conflict. This approach should respect Papuan culture and involve inclusive internal dialogue and accommodate the views of various ethnic groups and religions," she said.

Prof. Reni Mayerni also emphasized the importance of ceasing efforts to internationalize the Papua conflict while continuing to work toward peace. The government together with the TNI and POLRI remain committed to maintaining security and supporting development policies in Papua.

The FGD moderated by the Director of Defense, Security and Geography Studies of Lemhannas RI Air First Marshal Rolland Dulista G. Waha, presented a number of knowledgeable resource persons such as Deputy V for Politics, Law, Defense, Security and Human Rights of the Presidential Staff Office, Prof. Dr. Rumadi Ahmad, M.Ag.; Deputy IV for Coordination of National Defense of the Coordinating Ministry for Political, Legal and Security Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia, Rear Admiral Kisdiyanto, M.Tr. Opsla; Secretary of the Directorate General of Defense Strategy, Brigadier General TNI Dr. Oktaheroe Ramsi, S.Ip., M.Sc.; BIN Expert Agent, Brigadier General Leo Rajendra Ratna Begum; Deputy Head of BAIS, Air Vice Marshal M. Lemhannas RI Supports Quality Workforce Optimization in Banjarmasin BANJARMASIN - The Directorate of Socio-Cultural and Demographic Studies of Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) entitled "Optimizing the Workforce to Utilize the Demographic Bonus to Strengthen Socio-Cultural Resilience" on Thursday (30/5), at the Rattan Inn Hotel Banjarmasin, South Kalimantan. The event was chaired by Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono.

In his remarks, Eko Margiyono stated that the optimization of the workforce is important to strengthen the cultural identity and diversity of society, which is a vital aspect of socio-cultural resilience. A trained workforce can be the guardian and mobilizer of local and national culture, utilizing the demographic bonus to strengthen socio-cultural resilience.

This locus study focuses on South Kalimantan Province, which is rich in local wisdom and culture and possesses great potential in the creative economy. Although currently its economic growth is still focused on primary sectors such as mining and agriculture, Eko Margiyono emphasized the importance of economic diversification to minimize dependence on the non-renewable mineral and coal sector. Economic transformation is needed to provide various business alternatives for the workforce.

The event, which was moderated by Professional Expert in Social and Cultural Affairs of Lemhannas RI, Dr. Dadang Solihin, S.E., M.A., was attended by Head of the Manpower and Transmigration Office of South Kalimantan Province, Irfan

Sayuti, S.Sos., M.Si.; Mayor of Banjarmasin, H. Ibnu Sina, S.Pi., M.Si.; Commander of Korem 101/Antasari, Brigadier General TNI Ari Aryanto, S.E., M.I.P.; Head of Micro Business Cooperatives and Manpower of Banjarmasin City, H. Muhammad Isa Anshari, S.E., M.AP.; Head of Immigration Division of the Regional Office of the Ministry of Law and Human Rights of South Kalimantan, Junita Sitorus, S.I.P., M.Si.; Vice Rector of Lambung Mangkurat University, Dr. dr. Iwan Aflanie, M.kes. Sp.F. SH; and several stakeholders.

Commemoration of Pancasila Day in Lemhannas RI

JAKARTA - All personnel and educational participants of Lemhannas RI participated in the Commemoration Ceremony of Pancasila Day on Saturday (1/6) at Lemhannas RI's Central Field. Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Commissioner General of Police, Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra, M.Si., acted as the inspector of the ceremony. On this occasion, the speech of the Head of the Pancasila Ideology Development Agency of the Republic of Indonesia was delivered.

In the speech, Panca Putra emphasized the importance of Pancasila as a guide for the life of a pluralistic nation. "Pancasila and its values are the guiding star of the nation's life in accordance with the ideals of the state's founding," he said. This year's commemoration of the birth of Pancasila carries the theme "Pancasila, the Unifying Spirit of the Nation Towards Golden Indonesia 2045" which highlights the role of Pancasila in uniting the nation towards 100 years of Golden Indonesia.

All components of the nation are invited to ground the values of Pancasila in every aspect of life. "Pancasila has proven to be able to unite us in facing various historical challenges," said Commissioner General of Police Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra. Pancasila is also expected to be a guide for Indonesia in facing the era of globalization and information technology.

Pancasila must continue to be practiced and followed to become an ideology that benefits all Indonesians. "Pancasila is also expected to be a filter so that the Indonesian nation will not be subjected to disorientation in the future," he added. All components of the nation must mainstream Pancasila with relevant methods in embracing the demographic bonus, which will place millennials and Generation Z as the main actors of national development.

With the spirit of Pancasila, Panca Putra believes that all challenges the Indonesian nation faces will be overcome. Concluding his speech, he invited all components of the nation to work together to preserve Pancasila through this Pancasila birthday commemoration. "We must work together and collaborate to maintain harmony and integrity as a form of practicing the values of Pancasila," he concluded.

Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Expects New Officials to Become the Leading Force of the Organization

JAKARTA - Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono inaugurated 28 echelon I, II, and III officials and dismissed 18 echelon I, II, and III officials on Monday (3/6), at Nusantara Room, First Floor of Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

During his speech, Eko Margiyono stated that promotions and mutations are part of natural organizational dynamics. This serves not only for regeneration, but also part of personnel development to improve organizational performance with more responsibilities. "I am convinced that your abilities and experience can be an asset to adapt quickly in carrying out the state's mandate and trust," he said.

Eko Margiyono also emphasized the importance of sustaining Indonesia so that it grows into a prosperous, democratic, and equitable country. He invited all parties to work as a team and foster Lemhannas RI into a better institution, in line with the theme of the 59th anniversary of Lemhannas RI, "Reactualization of National Resilience".

The inaugurated officials are expected to be the organization's key mobilizers. They will be responsible for integrated strategic development, supporting the achievement of organizational goals, and enhancing the capabilities of the work units.

This includes implementing national-level leadership education programs, preparing study papers, strengthening national values, and providing management support.

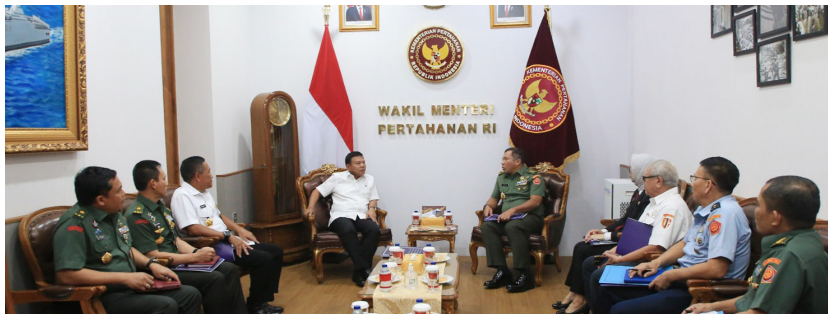

In concluding his remarks, Eko Margiyono expressed his gratitude and appreciation to the dismissed officials and welcomed the newly appointed officials, who are expected to further strengthen Lemhannas RI in carrying out its duties and functions.

JAKARTA - Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono paid a Courtesy Call to Deputy Minister of Defense of the Republic of Indonesia Lieut. Gen. (Ret.) Muhammad Herindra, M.A., M.Sc. on Monday (3/6), at the Ministry of Defense Office, Central Jakarta. This meeting discussed plans for implementing the 2024 Jakarta Geopolitical Forum (JGF).

Eko Margiyono explained that JGF 2024 is the 8th annual agenda of Lemhannas RI since 2017. This forum aims to be a forum for geopolitical experts, professionals and academics to share perspectives and experiences about geopolitics in an ever-changing world. Therefore, it is hoped that the Indonesian Minister of Defense, General (HOR)(Ret.) H. Prabowo Subianto Djojohadikusumo, can be the keynote speaker at the event, specifically discussing maritime security in the state's defense policy and Indonesia's projection as the world's maritime axis.

Meanwhile, Muhammad Herindra welcomed Eko Margiyono's arrival and expressed his support. He also promised to follow up on the meeting with the Indonesian Minister of Defense. Also

Lemhannas RI Commemorates Eid al-Adha by Slaughtering Sacrificial Animals

JAKARTA - Under the theme "The Spirit of Eid al-Adha to Enhance Togetherness and Diversity Among People of Religion", Lemhannas RI commemorated Eid al-Adha of 1445 H/2024 AD by distributing sacrificial animals on Wednesday (19/6) at the East Parking Lot of Lemhannas RI.

Associate Expert Legislation Planner of Legal and Cooperation Bureau, Sulis Marwiyani Fatkhan, S.H., M.Sc., as the Chairperson of the Eid al-Adha Commemoration Committee of 1445 H/2024 M, explained that this year Lemhannas RI received 9 cows and 6 goats as sacrificial animals.

The committee used the services of Cakung Slaughterhouse to slaughter the sacrificial animals. The slaughtered sacrificial animals were distributed to 531 people consisting of Lemhannas RI personnel, Individual Service Providers in the Monas area, Cleaners of Jalan Merdeka Selatan and Kebon Sirih areas, and residents.

On the occasion, Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono expressed his gratitude for the distribution of sacrificial animals in Lemhannas RI. In his speech, he conveyed that sacrificing animals to commemorate Eid al-Adha is not merely a routine. According to Islamic law, the slaughtering of sacrificial animals increases the value of worship.

Eko Margiyono expressed his hope that this event can be well evaluated for the slaughtering of sacrificial animals on Eid al-Adha next year. "I hope that the committee will be able to distribute these sacrificial animals to those entitled to receive them," he hoped.
