Building Understanding of National Values of All Indonesian Villages

Anas stated that the DPP Desa Bersatu is an organization for village empowerment towards all forms of policies. The MoU signing conducted was to conduct training on strengthening national values. "The technical guidance that needs to be conducted includes capacity building, leadership, love for the country, and nationalism," Anas said.

Furthermore, Eko Margiyono in his speech stated that it was a challenge for Lemhannas RI, especially the Deputy Office for Strengthening of National Values. "I would advise the committee not to simply run the program. The objectives should be formulated clearly and then put into activities to ensure that the output can truly be beneficial," he emphasized.

Eko Margiyono also expressed his gratitude to DPP Desa Bersatu for placing their trust in Lemhannas RI to arrange the event. On the occasion, eight organizations from DPP Desa Bersatu were present, namely APDESI (Association of Village Governments throughout Indonesia), DPN PPD (Association of Indonesian Village Officials National Executive Board), ABPEDNAS (Association of National Village Consultative Bodies), AKSI (Association of Indonesian Village Heads), PABPDSI (Association of Indonesian BPD Members), PP PPD (Central Board of Indonesian Village Officials), Parade Nusantara (Persatuan Rakyat Desa Nusantara), and KOMPAKDESI (Community of Former Indonesian Village Heads).

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI and the Central Executive Board (DPP) of Desa Bersatu signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Wednesday (4/9), in the Hening Room, Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI. The ceremony was held by the Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lieut. Gen Eko Margiyono, and the Chairman of DPP Desa Bersatu, Muhammad Asri Anas.

Karojianstra Sops Polri Gives Lecture to PPRA 67 Participants

JAKARTA - The Chief of the Strategic Studies Bureau of the Chief of Police Staff for Operations (Karojianstra Sops Polri), Brigadier General Marsudianto, S.I.K., M.Si. gave a lecture to the participants of PPRA 67 Lemhannas RI in the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika Room, on Thursday (5/9). On this occasion, Marsudianto explained the "Policy on Utilization and Development of POLRI Forces".

Marsudianto conveyed six strategies for the utilization and development of Polri forces, including the personnel development and improvement, organizational reinforcement, facilities and infrastructure maintenance, policy and strategy development, cooperation with other institutions and supervisory function optimization.

The strategy focuses on four targets. The first is public security and order calendar (kamtibmas) which consists of various forms of community and government operations that are permanent and dynamic in nature. The second is the nature of threat, which includes potential disturbances, threshold disturbances, and actual disturbances in each region.

The third target is Polri operations, which include improved routine activities, including Polri's excellent programs. And the fourth is Polri resources, which include budget, personnel competencies, and methods of action in the implementation of the core tasks and functions.

In cultivating human resources (HR), Polri has six strategic actions, including increasing the quantity and quality of HR towards the police 5.0 era, improving the performance-based career management system, expanding educational cooperation both within and outside the country, managing humanist and excellent HR, and increasing the welfare of Polri personnel.

At the end of his presentation, Marsudianto advised PPRA 67 participants, especially Polri officers, to maintain synergy with local governments and stakeholders. "Even when we do something right as police officers, the community and even the police officers do not necessarily regard us positively, not to mention that we do something wrong. Never stop doing the right thing," Marsudianto concluded.

Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI Hopes APINDO to Partner with the Government

JAKARTA - A total of 74 members of the Indonesian Entrepreneurs Association (APINDO) participated in the Strengthening of National Values Program for the Indonesian Entrepreneurs Association (APINDO) of 2024. With the theme of "Establishing an Inclusive, Fair, and Quality Ecosystem in order to Realize Entrepreneurship with the Spirit of National Values Derived from the Four National Basic Consensus". The event was held for seven days, from 9 to 15 September 2024.

"The strengthening of national values aims to shape and remind the national character for all components of the nation's youth," Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra S., M.Si. when giving a speech at the opening ceremony. In his opinion, APINDO, one of whose visions is to create a conducive, competitive, and sustainable business climate for employment opportunities, has an important contribution in addressing the nation's economic issues.

Concluding his remarks, the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI emphasized that the participation of the members of APINDO is a manifestation of efforts and moral responsibility in resolving the nation's issues. "We hope that APINDO can be a partner of the government in achieving the ideals and objectives of national development, both physical and non-physical, by always prioritizing the interests of the nation and state above personal or group interests," the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI concluded.

On the same occasion, Chairperson of APINDO, Shinta W. Kamdani, emphasized the importance of preserving national values amid globalization to strengthen national resilience. "Entrepreneurship should promote the spirit of nationality, contributing not only to personal gain but also to the welfare of society and the country," Shinta stated. She called on APINDO members to develop a business ecosystem responsive to global dynamics while remaining grounded in national principles. "Let's unite to create a strong, fair, and inclusive business ecosystem, bringing Indonesia to a bright and globally competitive future," she concluded.

Possessing Complex Diversity, India Becomes PPRA 67 Overseas Study Destination

JAKARTA - With the aim of improving the insights and strategic analysis skills of the participants, Lemhannas RI organized an Overseas Strategic Study (SSLN). For PPRA 67, all participants were divided into four destinations, including South Korea, India, Cambodia and Vietnam.

The group to India which was coached by Senior Lecturer in Geography of Lemhannas RI, Major General Ramses Lumban Tobing, S.T. and led by Senior Lecturer in International Relations of Lemhannas RI, Major General Yuniyanto, S.Sos., M.M. visited India from September 9 to 12, 2024.

During the trip to India, the group visited several places, including the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia (KBRI) in New Delhi; National Defense College (NDC) New Delhi; Indian Fusion Center-Indian Ocean Region (IFC IOR); BrahMos Company in New Delhi; and cultural visits to Taj Mahal and Janpath.

During the visit to the Indonesian Embassy in New Delhi, the entourage was welcomed by Ambassador Ina Hagniningtyas Krisnamurthi. Later, while visiting NDC New Delhi, the group was received by NDC Commandant Air Marshal Handeep Bains AVSM VSM. Then, when visiting IFC - IOR, the group was received by Captain Sachin Kumar Singh.

India was selected as a study destination because it is one of the largest countries with diverse geographical features that shape the climate; ecosystems; and settlement patterns across its territory. As the country with the second largest population in the world after China, India has a diversity of cultures, ethnicities, languages, and religions.

It is hoped that PPRA 67 participants will gain a broader perspective on the development of Indian developments that may have a strategic impact on Indonesia.

SSLN of PPRA 67 Lemhannas RI to Cambodia

JAKARTA - Senior Lecturer of National Vigilance of Lemhannas RI, Major General Achmad Daniel Chardin, S.E., M.Si. as the head of the delegation, guided the participants of Regular Education Program Batch 67 (PPRA 67) of Lemhannas RI to carry out the Overseas Strategic Study (SSLN) of PPRA 67 Lemhannas RI in Cambodia. The visit was held for four days, from Monday, September 9, 2024 to Thursday, September 12, 2024.

The SSLN is a learning method that involves a visit to the center of government, strategic objects and institutions of international organizations in Cambodia as an enrichment and consolidation of understanding after the participants received lectures, conducted studies and carried out discussions on the contemporary strategic environment to assess the prospect of bilateral relations between Cambodia and the Republic of Indonesia. The participants are expected to have a broader awareness and perspective on the development of the environment in the region that has a strategic impact on Indonesia.

The SSLN entourage were also accompanied by Professional Expert for Geography of Lemhannas RI, Dr. Sukendra Martha, M.Sc., MApp.Sc. and Senior Analyst for Socio-Cultural Affairs of Lemhannas RI, Brigadier General Dr. Joseph Robert Giri, S.I.P., M.Si., M.H.I., M.Han., CGCAE. as the Liaison Officer.

During the four-day trip, the group visited seven places, including the Indonesian Embassy in Phnom Penh, Cambodia National Defense University (NDU), National Committee Against Drug (NCAD), Cambodia Special Forces Command Headquarters, and City Tour to the Royal Palace, Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, and Central Market.

Participants of PPRA 67 Visit Socialist Republic of Vietnam for SSLN

JAKARTA - Senior Analyst for Socio-Cultural Affairs of Lemhannas RI, Police Inspector General Drs. Sunarwan Sumirat accompanied the participants of Regular Education Program Batch 67 (PPRA 67) of Lemhannas RI to conduct Foreign Strategic Study (SSLN) of PPRA 67 of Lemhannas RI to the Socialist Republic of Vietnam. The program was held for four days, from Monday, September 9, 2024 to Thursday, September 12, 2024.

The SSLN activity aims to facilitate the participants in studying and completing data on the astagatra situation of the country being visited as a comparison and to provide recommendations for national policy makers in order to realize better national interests. SSLN activity has two targets, namely obtaining objective data and facts about the condition of the country being visited from the astagatra aspect and increasing understanding of the astagatra conditions of the destination country and the potential for development and improvement in order to realize national interests.

In addition to Sunarwan, the group was also accompanied by Senior Analyst for National Vigilance of Lemhannas RI, Major General (Mar) Ipung Purwadi, M.M. as the leader of the group; Senior Analyst for National Management System of Lemhannas RI, Major General TNI (Ret.) Dr. I Gusti Putu Buana, S.A.P., M.Sc.; and Senior Analyst for National Resilience of Lemhannas RI, Brigadier General Rudy Wahjudiono, S.E., M.M. as the Liaison Officer.

During the four-day trip, the group visited nine places, including Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia (KBRI) in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, ABG Leadership Institute, The Institute for Southeast Asian Studies (ISEAS), Military Historical Museum, Imperial Citadel Thang Long, Thang Long Cement Company, Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, Ha Long Bay Harbor, and Hanoi Old Quarter.

Being One of the World's Economic Pillars, South Korea Becomes an SSLN Destination

JAKARTA - The Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono accompanied a group of PPRA 67 Lemhannas RI participants to South Korea for an Overseas Strategy Study (SSLN) from September 10 to 14, 2024.

During their trip to South Korea, the group visited several places, including the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia (KBRI) in Seoul, Demilitarized Zone of Korea, Hanwha Ocean Industry Busan, National Agency for Administrative City Construction (NAACC), Gyeongbokgung Palace, and Namsan Tower.

During the visit to the Indonesian Embassy in Seoul, the delegation was welcomed by the Chargé d'Affaires Ad Interim of the Indonesian Embassy in South Korea

Zelda Wulan Kartika. Then the group participated in the discussion forum "Development of the ROK Economic and Defense Industry: Opportunities and Challenges of Cooperation for Indonesia" in the Demilitarized Zone of Korea. The discussion was presented by two speakers, Dr. Wondeuk Cho from the Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security (IFANS) and Dr. Maeng Cheol-Kyu.

When visiting Hanwha Ocean Industry Busan, the group was received by the General Manager of Hanwha Ocean Co., Ltd. Naval Ship Business Hee Soo (H.S), Lee. Then at the National Agency for Administrative City Construction (NAACC), the entourage was received by Deputy Director of International Cooperation Team Hanna LEE, Deputy Director/ International Cooperation Team

Jeongmin Woo, and Assistant Deputy Director of International Cooperation Team Hyunjoo OH.

South Korea was selected as a destination country because it is one of the largest economic countries in Asia and the world. Known for its high-tech, automotive, and electronics industries, South Korea's economy has been rapidly growing since the end of the Korean War. In fact, South Korea has now become one of the main pillars of its economy and is known for its giant companies such as Samsung and Hyundai.

It is hoped that the SSLN participants can learn some lessons from South Korea's approach in combining traditional culture, technology, and natural resources to be applied in Indonesia.
