

NEWSletter

Tanhana Dharmma Mangrva | 184th edition, November 2024

Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. Officially Inaugurated

Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Officially Closes Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024

Prime Secretary: Consensus is a mutual agreement

Sismennas Exercises to Train PPRA 67 Participants to Take Strategic Decisions

Table of Content

- 2 First Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Geopolitics and Maritime Whole of Government in the Region
- 3 Second Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Strategic Partnership for Sustainable Maritime Industry
- 4 Third Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Maritime Security and Challenges in the Region
- 5 Fourth Plenary Session of Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024: Projecting Future Challenges In Maritime Security
- 6 Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Officially Closes Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024
- 7 Prime Secretary: Consensus is a mutual agreement
- 8 Sismennas Exercises to Train PPRA 67 Participants to Take Strategic Decisions
- 9 Lemhannas RI Holds National Insight Dialogue in Central Java
- 10 Outcomes Acceleration of National Values Training Alumni in Manado, North Sulawesi
- 10 Strengthening Anti-Corruption for DPD RI Members for the 2024-2029 Period
- 11 Strengthening of National Values for PT Pertamina Training & Consulting to Encourage Sovereign Downstreaming
- 12 Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. Officially Inaugurated

Editorial

Official in Charge Dani Wardhana
Managing Editor Hendra Setiawan
Editor Bambang Iman Aryanto
Journalist Naomi Augustina, Sucitra Puteri
Translator Magista Dian Fitrilia, Dwi Ariyani
Graphic Designer Arini Maulidia
Photographer Angga Mitra Tama
Secretariat Maulida Arbaningsih

Editorial Address

PR Bureau of Lemhannas RI,
10th Medan Merdeka Selatan Street,
Central Jakarta, 10110

Phone. (021) 3832470
Email redaksihumaspubbit@gmail.com
Instagram: @lemhannas_ri
Facebook: @lembagaketahanannasionalri
Twitter: @LemhannasRI
Youtube: Lemhannas RI
TikTok: @lemhannas_ri

Wed

25
09/2024

First Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Geopolitics and Maritime Whole of Government in the Region

JAKARTA - The Jakarta Geopolitical Forum (JGF) VIII/2024 on "Addressing Geo-Maritime Resilience Challenges in the Indo-Pacific" took place at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Kuningan, Jakarta on (25/9). The two-day forum brought together leaders and experts from several countries to discuss maritime resilience challenges in the geo-maritime tension-ridden Indo-Pacific region.

The first plenary session hosted by Dr. R.A. Adriani Kusumawardani, Director for Maritime Security and Resilience of the Coordinating Ministry for Maritime Affairs and Investment, covered the topic of "Geopolitics and Maritime Whole of Government in the Region". The discussion proceeded with opening remarks by the General TNI (Ret.) Luhut Binsar Pandjaitan, the Coordinating Minister for Maritime Affairs and Investment of the Republic of Indonesia. The discussion was followed by the keynote speech by the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia, Pahala Nugraha Mansury, S.E., M.B.A., emphasizing the need for stronger international cooperation in dealing with threats and crimes at sea. Both speakers highlighted the importance of regional and global collaboration in strengthening maritime security.

Stéphane Mechat, Chargé d'affaires of the European Union delegation to Indonesia, discussed the implementation of the whole-of-government approach in the Indo-Pacific region and the role of major players in the region's geopolitics. In addition, Dr. Kao Kim Hourn, the Secretary-General of ASEAN, talked about ASEAN's perspective on implementing the whole-of-government approach in addressing maritime issues. He pointed out ASEAN's role in applying this approach to strengthen maritime resilience in the region.

Melissa Conley Tyler, the Executive Director of the Asia-Pacific Development, Diplomacy, and Defence Dialogue, discussed the geopolitical position of middle-power nations and their contribution to implementing the whole-of-government approach. Tyler emphasized how these countries can support collective efforts in countering maritime threats.

Wed
25
09/2024

Second Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Strategic Partnership for Sustainable Maritime Industry

JAKARTA - In a series of Jakarta Geopolitical Forum (JGF) VIII/2024 with a theme "Addressing Geo-Maritime Resilience Challenges in the Indo-Pacific," the second plenary session focused on "Strategic Partnership for Sustainable Maritime Industry," which took place at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Kuningan, Jakarta on (25/9). The discussion was hosted by Radian Nurcahyo of the Coordinating Ministry for Maritime Affairs and Investment.

The session began with a keynote speech by Prof. Wihana Kirana Jaya, Special Staff of the Indonesian Ministry of Transportation. In it, Prof. Wihana discussed the importance of strategic partnerships in advancing a sustainable maritime industry and emphasized regional and global cooperation as key to addressing maritime security and sustainability challenges in the Indo-Pacific region, especially in Indonesia.

The first speaker, Dr. Martin Ingloft, the Director of Crimario Project, spotlighted The Indo-Pacific Regional Information Sharing (IORIS) solutions in dealing with maritime security threats and safety challenges, as well as how IORIS facilitates partnership building between flag and port states and the maritime industry in the Indo-Pacific. Following this, Muhamad Resa, the Risk Management Director of Pertamina International Shipping, elaborated on the significant disruptions affecting the maritime industry and their impact on social, economic, and operational issues, as well as the disruptive sustainability impacts on the regional maritime industry and their mitigation strategies.

Jakub Similski, Business Development Manager at Scytalys EFA Group, discussed the latest technology developments and implementations in the maritime industry and the role of technology in supporting a sustainable maritime industry. Finally, Rene Piil Pedersen, Managing Director of A.P. Moller Singapore Pte Ltd (Maersk Line Singapore), explained how multinational companies in the maritime industry are adopting sustainable shipping practices to support ecological, human, and economic health and vitality.

Thu
26
09/2024

Third Plenary Session of JGF VIII/2024: Maritime Security and Challenges in the Region

JAKARTA - Entering the second day, the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum (JGF) VIII/2024 held the third plenary session with the topic "Maritime Security and Challenges in the Region". The discussion was hosted by a Senior Lecturer of the Department of International Relations of the University of Indonesia, Edy Prasetyono, Ph.D.

Indonesia's Deputy Minister of Defense, Lieutenant General TNI (Ret.) Muhammad Herindra,

M.A., M.Sc., started the session by emphasizing the importance of enhancing defense cooperation and maritime security in the Indo-Pacific region. He stressed that maritime stability is key to the process of peace and shared prosperity, given the strategic position of the Indo-Pacific as an important global trade route.

The discussion was followed by Sandeep Chakravorty, Ambassador of India to Indonesia, emphasizing how India views the geopolitical importance of the Indo-Pacific region and outlining India's key maritime interests. He also expressed India's vision of promoting a rules-based order in the region, as well as the key principles that should guide regional cooperation. Then, Admiral Vladimir Vorobev, Deputy Commander of the Russian Navy, explored the impact of Russia's latest maritime doctrine on regional maritime security and resilience and Russia's position and perspective on maintaining order in an increasingly complex and multidimensional sea.

Indonesia's Deputy Chief of Naval Staff, Rear Admiral Erwin S. Aldedharma, S.E., M.M., M.Sc., spoke on Indonesia's Global Maritime Axis and its Perspective on Good Ocean Governance. Aldedharma described how Indonesia's Global Maritime Axis policy affects regional maritime security and Indonesia's perspective on maintaining order at sea.

Thu
26
 09/2024

Fourth Plenary Session of Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024: Projecting Future Challenges In Maritime Security

JAKARTA - Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024 continued the second day's agenda with the fourth plenary session which focused on "Projecting Future Challenges in Maritime Security" at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Kuningan, Jakarta. This session was moderated by Dr. Shafiah F. Muhibat, Deputy Executive Director of the Research Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), who expertly directed the discussion between the speakers and participants.

The session opened with a speech from the Deputy Chair of the National Research and Innovation Agency (BRIN), Prof. Dr. Ir. Amarulla Octavian, S.T., M.Sc., DESD., ASEAN Eng, , who underlined the importance of research and innovation in dealing with increasingly complex maritime security challenges.

The first speaker, Erik van der Veen, Head of Program Office in Indonesia for the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) explained future trends in maritime transnational crime and its impact on criminal justice practices. He emphasized the importance of stronger regional cooperation to overcome the threat of transnational maritime crime. Then Masayoshi Mita from the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), spoke about "Adoption of Sustainable Practices in the Maritime Industry". Mita explains how multinational companies in the maritime industry are adopting sustainable shipping practices to support ecological, human and economic health, as well as the development of green technologies in the maritime industry.

Admiral (Ret.) Sudarshan Y. Shrikhande AVSM, IN from the Australian National Center for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS), University of Wollongong, discussed "Challenges of Future Maritime Security Cooperation." Shrikhande explores how technological developments influence maritime security cooperation and the possibility of developing regional maritime security governance to achieve resilience to strategic risk and disruption.

Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Officially Closes Jakarta Geopolitical Forum VIII/2024

JAKARTA - After two days of implementation of the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum (JGF) VIII/2024 starting from September 25 2024, Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Lieut. Gen. Eko Margiyono officially closed JGF VIII/2024 at the Ritz Carlton Hotel, Jakarta, on Thursday (26/9).

For the success of the JGF which lasted for two days, Eko Margiyono congratulated all participants and event organizers. Concluding the insightful forum, Eko Margiyono said that maritime security had evolved beyond the traditional concept of naval power and legal framework. "Today's discussions have demonstrated the complexity of developments in the maritime domain, driven by factors such as globalization, climate change, economic interdependence and technological advances," he said.

the challenges of maritime domain needs in the Indo-Pacific that geopolitics and maritime situations dominate the region As stated by experts, strategic companies for the growing maritime industry, maritime security, and challenges in the region indicate future challenges in maritime security.

The need for security, cooperation and a comprehensive approach to understanding is very important because maritime security can no longer be managed unilaterally. In line with this, Eko Margiyono said that cooperation between state and non-state actors is needed, as well as involvement from regional and global stakeholders.

We need to take responsibility to continue working together to strengthen security in the Indo-Pacific region, promote sustainable maritime practices, and ensure that the seas remain safe and a shared resource for future generations.

In closing, Eko Margiyono hopes to see collaboration and sustainable progress that will emerge from discussions at the JGF Forum. "I hope everyone gets inspiration from these discussions, and until we meet again," he concluded.

Mon
07
10/2024

Prime Secretary: Consensus is a mutual agreement

JAKARTA - The Deputy for Strengthening National Values of Lemhannas RI held a Strengthening of Multicultural National Values in Jakarta at the Oasis Amir Hotel, Jakarta, on Monday (7/10).

The program with the theme "Strengthening Collaboration between Institutions and Society in Establishing National Values in Community, National and State Life" was officially opened by the Prime Secretary (Sestama) of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra S., M.Si. In his speech, Panca Putra congratulated the participants who had been selected and were willing to take part in the National Values Strengthening activities of Lemhannas RI.

"Hopefully this will strengthen your understanding of strengthening national values, (and) love for Lemhannas Republic of Indonesia," said Panca Putra. This activity is a very important moment and is one of the tasks given by the state to Lemhannas Republic of Indonesia to share, remind and invite all the nation's children to work together to maintain the national resilience of the Indonesian nation.

National resilience is a dynamic condition of the nation that contains the resilience and superiority of the Indonesian nation in facing various threats, disturbances, obstacles, and challenges, both direct and indirect, which come from within the country and from abroad. Indonesia's national resilience is based on and originates from the nation's four basic consensuses, namely Pancasila, the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia, the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia, and the Principle of Bhinneka Tunggal Ika.

Through the National Values Strengthening Activity which was held for eight days, Panca Putra hopes that participants can make the best use of the entire series of activities thoroughly. With this, it is hoped that participants will have broad insight and be able to implement national values properly and correctly.

Sismennas Exercises to Train PPRA 67 Participants to Take Strategic Decisions

administration process, so that they are able to understand and take decisions in critical conditions, arrange strategic policies in order to comprehensively solve factual national problems, in an integral, systemic and holistic way. One hundred PPRA 67 were divided into 13 ministries and institutions to conduct Olah Sismennas which carries the theme "Cross-Sectoral Coordination of Government Apparatus and Related Stakeholders towards Democratic Maturity".

In the implementation of the Olah Sismennas various dynamics of national life will be depicted which are logically assumed, the situations which arise are created in such a way as to create similarity or resemblance to the actual situation and dynamics. The various dynamics described will influence national life, especially in terms of national development which is carried out to be more dynamic in accordance with the planned scenario.

JAKARTA - Deputy for National-Level Education, Air Vice Marshal Andi Heru Wahyudi, at the Opening Ceremony of the PPRA 67 National Management System Simulation (Olah Sismennas) said that Olah Sismennas is a simulation of cooperation, coordination and synchronization among ministries/ institutions to produce and manage a government policy aimed at improving people's welfare.

Held on October 8-10, Olah Sismennas aims to train PPRA 67 participants in the state

"It is hoped that Olah Sismennas can improve the participants' abilities in the process of making appropriate and strategic decisions to solve factual national problems in a comprehensive, integral, systemic and holistic manner," said the Deputy for National-Level Education closing his remarks.

Wed
09
10/2024

Lemhannas RI Holds National Insight Dialogue in Central Java

SEMARANG - Lemhannas RI, through the Deputy for Strengthening National Values, held a National Insight Dialogue in Central Java Province which was officially opened by the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra, M.Si at the Metro Park View Hotel Semarang Ballroom, on Wednesday (9/10). This activity, which was attended by 100 participants, aims to strengthen human resource capacity in order to welcome Golden Indonesia 2045 in accordance with the theme "Strengthening Human Resource Capacity in Order to Welcome Golden Indonesia 2045".

In his speech, Panca Putra said that the theme raised was very relevant and important in the context of the current and future development and challenges of the Indonesian nation. Participants will be provided with the main material, namely Pancasila, the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia, the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia (NKRI), and Bhinneka Tunggal Ika. Apart from the main material, participants will also be provided with supporting material, namely an introduction to the leadership, an introduction to the program, strategic environmental developments, local wisdom, and instructions for writing group essays and discussion mechanisms.

In today's 5.0 society, the quality of human resources is the main key to achieve nation's progress and prosperity. Strengthening human resource capacity does not only include aspects of technical knowledge and skills, but also includes strengthening national character based on national insight and the spirit of nationalism.

At the end of his speech, Panca Putra hoped that the ongoing national insight dialogue could run smoothly and provide great benefits for all participants in nurturing and maintaining the spirit of national values which are the main capital in preparing superior and strong Indonesian human resources with national character towards Golden Indonesia 2045.

MANADO - The Deputy for Strengthening National Values of Lemhannas RI held an alumni outcome acceleration activity for training of trainers (PUP)/training of trainers (TOT) for strengthening national values at the Sintesa Peninsula Hotel Manado, on Wednesday (16/10).

This activity was carried out to determine the effectiveness of the TOT implementation in strengthening national values that had been held and to encourage the role of TOT alumni as agents of change to be more proactive and contribute to disseminate national values.

This activity was opened directly by the Director of Training for National Deputy Trainers of Lemhannas RI First Admiral Stevanus Ervin Suryadi, S.T. In his speech, Stevanus Ervin said that the TOT activity held in Manado in 2023 by Lemhannas RI is a national priority program, which means the benefits must be felt by the community. "Therefore, quality must be maintained and implemented well," said Stevanus Ervin.

Outcomes Acceleration of National Values Training Alumni in Manado, North Sulawesi

In order to guarantee the quality of activities, several evaluations were carried out, one of which was accelerating alumni outcomes to measure the success of participating alumni in implementing national values in daily life, both in the family, work and social environments.

Closing his remarks, Stevanus Ervin hoped that the alumni could participate actively as well as improve the quality of service to create agents of change who can contribute to disseminate national values.

Attended the activity was Acting Head of the National Unity and Political Agency for North Sulawesi Province Johnny A.A. Suak, S.E., M.Sc. and Chairman of the PUP Strengthening of National Values in 2023, Col. Edyson Lambe', S.Pd.

Strengthening Anti-Corruption for DPD RI Members for the 2024-2029 Period

JAKARTA - "The Corruption Perception Index (IPK) is a portrait of the country, not just KPK, not just agencies," said KPK (Corruption Eradication Commission) Deputy for Education and Community Participation Wawan Wardiana in Strengthening National Values for DPD RI Members for the 2024-2029 Period on Monday, October 21, 2024. Attending on behalf of the Chairman of KPK, Nawawi Pomolang, the Deputy for Education and Community Participation delivered information on Strengthening Anti-Corruption for the Implementation of a State with Integrity (PAKU Integritas) for DPD RI Members for 2024-2029.

On this occasion, the Deputy for Education and Community Participation conveyed the role of DPD in eradicating corruption. DPD members can push for legislation that supports the corruption eradication by proposing policies to strengthen anti-corruption mechanisms in the regions. Furthermore, DPD members can support transparency and accountability in the regions by encouraging the implementation of e-government systems and transparency in regional budgets to minimize gaps in corruption.

"Keep your integrity while carrying out your duties, if you make policies or recommendations, please support anti-corruption. Help us spread anti-corruption values," said the Deputy for Education and Community Participation.

Furthermore, DPD members can collaborate with the Corruption Eradication Commission and other Law Enforcement Agencies in carrying out supervision, reporting violations, and increasing the capacity of local governments in implementing anti-corruption policies.

For information, DPD RI members for the 2024-2029 period received strengthening of national values from Lemhannas RI. This strengthening activity will be held from October 21, 2024 to October 27, 2024. It is hoped that this activity can strengthen the national spirit in carrying out the duties of DPD RI Members for the 2024-2029 period.

Mon
21
 10/2024

Strengthening of National Values for PT Pertamina Training & Consulting to Encourage Sovereign Downstreaming

JAKARTA - The Deputy for Strengthening National Values of Lemhannas RI again held the Opening Ceremony for Strengthening National Values for PT Pertamina Group Batch IV, a Collaboration of Lemhannas RI and PT Pertamina Training & Consulting (PTC) in 2024 in the Pancasila Room, Lemhannas RI, on Monday (21/ 10). The activity raised the theme "Strengthening National Values to Realize Sovereign and Just Energy Downstream".

Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI Police Commissioner General Drs. Panca Putra, M.Si. officially opened the activity. "Welcome to the Indonesian miniature campus, the geopolitical school of Indonesia," said Panca Putra.

In his speech, Panca Putra said that in last few years, the Indonesian government has intensified its downstream energy policy. These efforts include developing energy infrastructure that supports the management of natural resources into value-added products.

Quoting a speech by the President of the Republic of Indonesia, General (HOR) (Ret.) Datuk Seri H. Prabowo Subianto Djojohadikusumo, Panca Putra said that the challenges of Indonesia in the future are related to the dynamics and upheavals of the world which are not easy. In line with this, energy self-sufficiency must be able to be realized and prepared to face the worst possibilities.

One important step is the utilization and use of renewable energy, namely by managing palm oil, biothermal, such as solar, wind, water, gas, biomass. "Energy management must be in line with Indonesia's and the world's commitment to continue reducing carbon emissions and achieving sustainability targets," said Panca Putra.

The number of participants who took part in the Strengthening National Values activities for PTC class IV was eighty people. Also present were Pertamina Group, Finance Director of PT Pertamina Training & Consulting Kurnia Pinayungan and SVP Human Capital Management of PT Pertamina Persero Saptiadi Nugroho.

Tue
22
10/2024

Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. Officially Inaugurated

JAKARTA - Located at the State Palace, President Prabowo Subianto inaugurated Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. as Governor of Lemhannas RI on Tuesday (22/10). The inauguration is based on the Decree of the President of the Republic of Indonesia Number 146 P of 2024 concerning the Appointment of the Governor of the National Resilience Institute of the Republic of Indonesia.

The Decree was issued by the President of the Republic of Indonesia in Jakarta on October 21 2024 and read by the Deputy for Apparatus Administration at the Ministry of State Secretariat, Nanik Purwanti, at the inauguration at the State Palace.

"That I will be loyal to the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia and will carry out all statutory regulations for the sake of my service to the nation and state," said the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. take the oath of office. Then on this occasion the Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. also take an oath that in carrying out the duties of the position he will uphold the ethics of the office, work to the best of his ability, with a full sense of responsibility.

After the inauguration of the Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. conveyed his mandate that he would carry out when leading Lemhannas RI. In the field of education, Lemhannas RI must direct national leaders to have the same direction towards the nation's ideals. Then Lemhannas RI must provide input and become a think tank for the President and provide input related to geopolitical issues. "We have an obligation to provide input as a think tank," said the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si.

Furthermore, the Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. emphasized the important role of Lemhannas RI in strengthening national values in order to maintain national resilience in the midst of globalization and digitalization. "I hope and ask for prayers from the entire community so that we can carry out this mandate as well as possible," said the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M. Si. when met by media crew.