Governor of Lemhannas RI on Strengthening of National Values Program for Members of DPD RI 2024-2029

JAKARTA - On the first day of his office as the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si visited and briefed the participants of the Strengthening of National Values for DPD RI Members for the 2024-2029 Period at the Grand Ballroom of Shangrila Hotel Jakarta, on Wednesday (23/10). The Governor was assisted by the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Commissioner General of Police, Drs. R. Z. Panca Putra, M.Si., and the Deputy of Strengthening of National Values, Major General TNI Rido Hermawan.

The governor expressed his pleasure to meet and talk with all members of DPD RI. He also emphasized the strategic role of Lemhannas RI to explore and strengthen national values. "We prioritize the interests of the nation and state. Therefore, this program intends to continue strengthening national values amid external political dynamics and situations, including global economic competition, climate change, trade wars, etc. Therefore, we strengthen our national interest or national goals," he added.

On this occasion, the Chairman of DPD RI, Sultan Bachtiar Najamudin, also stated that Lemhannas RI was established to realize the aspirations of the nation's founding fathers. Sultan Bachtiar also hoped that with the strengthening of the national values program, DPD RI members would understand their rights, duties, and responsibilities as members of DPD RI and Indonesian citizens. "Because DPD members work directly with regional communities, if they are competent and fully understand their duties as citizens, Insya Allah, this nation is secure, the regions are thriving, and there will be no negative issues regarding the unity of Indonesia," he concluded.

Training of PPRA 67's Spouses Formally Ends

JAKARTA - "This training course is expected to sustain and support the spouses of PPRA 67 participants in carrying out their duties," the governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si., stated during the Closing Ceremony of the Spouses of Regular Education Program Batch 67 (PPRA 67) Participants of Lemhannas RI on Monday (28/10).

On this occasion, the governor reminded that family holds the first and most significant importance in realizing Indonesia's excellent human resources. "The quality and strong character of Indonesian human resources are built and started from the family," the governor added. The family's success in realizing excellent human resources benefits national development.

Ace Hasan Syadzily also reminded the importance of building national independence, as stated by Indonesian President Prabowo Subianto in his presidential inauguration speech. The Indonesian people must work hard to eliminate poverty, manage natural resources, and encourage the advancement of human resources.

"We all have a role in achieving this. The companions are required to support the husbands and wives in their work to ensure that the national ideals can be realized together," the governor of Lemhannas RI explained. Therefore, he encouraged all PPRA 67 participants to be motivated and become role models for themselves, their families, and their communities.

Hopefully, the lessons delivered during the course will raise the spouses of PPRA 67 participants' awareness and motivation as companions and agents of national values. After attending the training, the spouses of PPRA 67 participants will gain more insight and knowledge and understand the role of PPRA 67 participants as national-level leader cadres.

Professional Experts of Lemhannas RI Discuss IMF-Indonesia Report

JAKARTA - Several Professional Experts of Lemhannas RI attended an Intellectual Exercise Sharing Session with the theme “Review of IMF-Indonesia Report” at Syailendra Room on Wednesday (30/10). The event invited the Senior Director of Bank Indonesia, Haris Munandar, to discuss “Indonesian Economy from the Lens of 2024 IMF Article IV Consultation Report”.

The Senior Director of Bank Indonesia stated that the IMF considered Indonesia’s economic growth to remain resilient with maintained inflation and a robust financial sector. The IMF envisions Indonesia’s economic performance to remain high, growing at 5.0% and 5.1% in 2024 and 2025, respectively. However, Indonesia must maintain prudent fiscal policy, reform to protect financial sector resilience, and bridge structural gaps to achieve the Golden Indonesia of 2045.

On this occasion, the governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si., stated that the meeting was urgently needed because the Professional Expert’s perspectives on economic resilience are essential to provide strategic insights to the President.

Furthermore, Ace Hasan Syadzily mentioned that one of the government’s targets is to achieve economic growth of up to 8%. Lemhannas RI is expected to provide support by preparing a scenario outlining the steps to realize this.

Therefore, the governor of Lemhannas RI emphasized the vital role of Lemhannas RI’s professional experts in drafting a scenario regarding these issues. “I hope you all can comprehensively understand the economic development conditions that will inevitably affect our domestic economic situation,” he concluded.

M.Si., as the Rector of STIAMI Institute of Social and Management Sciences for the period 2024-2029,” the governor of Lemhannas RI expressed.

The governor of Lemhannas RI believes that the more quality universities available, the more qualified the Indonesian generation will be to achieve Golden Indonesia 2045. The foundation of Golden Indonesia 2045 is determined by the quality of the young generation produced through universities.

“We expect STIAMI Institute, led by Prof. Dr. Hj Sylviana Murni, S.H., M.Si., to prepare graduates who are competitive, proficient, and competent amid today's overwhelming global competition,” the governor added.

Prof. Dr. Hj. Sylviana Murni, S.H., M.Si., who was recently inaugurated as the Rector of STIAMI Institute of Social and Management Sciences, is the Chairperson of the Regional Executive Board (DPD) of IKAL-Lemhannas DKI Jakarta. The appointment is an honor for the Lemhannas RI family. It is hoped that her leadership will bring new colors to implementing education at the STIAMI Institute.

Also present at the inauguration ceremony were ILOMATA Foundation Advisor, Prof. Dr. Safri Nurmantu, M.Si., Head of DIKTI Region III Service Institution, Prof. Dr. Toni Toharudin, S.Si., M.Sc., Chairperson of the DPP IKAL-Lemhannas RI, General TNI (Ret.) Agum Gumelar, and Chairman of DPD RI, Sultan Baktiar Najamudin.

Governor of Lemhannas RI and PBNU Chairman Discussing Geopolitics

JAKARTA - Governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si, paid a courtesy call to the Office of the Executive Board of Nahdlatul Ulama (PBNU) on Wednesday (30/10), and was personally welcomed by the General Chairman of PBNU, K.H. Yahya Cholil Staquf. On this occasion, the governor was assisted by the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Commissioner General of Police, Drs. R.Z. Panca Putra S., M.Si.

During the meeting, Gus Yahya gave the governor insights on geopolitical policies. "One of the points mentioned was how Lemhannas RI can offer opinions to the President regarding geopolitics and how Indonesia, as a major power in the world, has a historical footprint," the governor of Lemhannas RI recounted.

The governor stated that Indonesia's global political role can be revitalized by promoting and strengthening the nation's role in the region known as the global south. Gus Yahya's view on this matter will be considered as a study subject in Lemhannas RI.

On the same occasion, Gus Yahya also emphasized humanitarian Islam as a major concept regarding the role of religion in contributing to Indonesia's national development. Furthermore, the governor stated that it is relevant to one of the functions of Lemhannas RI, which is to strengthen national values based on the four basic consensus of the nation.

The governor also expressed his enthusiasm for collaborating with PBNU to organize an education program for future national leaders. According to the governor, NU has many cadres in several government institutions, including the TNI, Polri, and ASN, who are trained to become leaders.

Lemhannas RI Planning Bureau Conducts Socialization on Service Standards

JAKARTA - The National Resilience Institute of the Republic of Indonesia conducted the Socialization on Organizational and Governance Policies (Socialization on Service Standards) that was delivered by the Ministry of Administrative and Bureaucratic Reform (PANRB) of the Republic of Indonesia on Tuesday (5/11) online. The event was opened directly by the Head of the Planning Bureau of Lemhannas RI, Commodore Trismawan Djonisajoko, S.E., M.M., M.Tr.Opsla.

The most important aspect of service standards is policy. "The highest level of policy is the president who wishes for the citizens to receive the best excellent service," Trismawan stated in his speech. Following this, legislation will be created to regulate policies on service standards.

Trismawan hopes that with the socialization of service standards based on policies, regulations, and legislation, all personnel can understand and implement them properly. The standards regulate the service providers and the public by ensuring that they understand their rights and the extent to which they are served. He explained that the purpose of excellent service is to make the public satisfied, accepted, and served well. "Hopefully this socialization can encourage public servants to have a better sense of service," he stressed.

The socialization featured a Policy Analyst from the Deputy Office of Public Services of the Ministry of

PANRB, Lies Woro Susanti, as a speaker. On this occasion, Lies Woro explained the Guidelines for Service Standards based on the Minister of PANRB Regulation Number 15 of 2014. In her speech, Lies Woro emphasized that service standards have six principles, namely simplicity, participative, accountability, sustainability, transparency, and fairness. After the presentation, the socialization continued with questions and answers session.

Lemhannas RI Studies the Geopolitical Dynamics of the Middle East

effort to prepare Indonesia to face the challenging geopolitical dynamics of the Middle East,” the Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI stated.

JAKARTA - To explore the crucial issues growing in the Middle East region and its impact on national interests, Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) on “Geopolitical Dynamics in the Middle East and its Impact on Indonesia” at Kresna Room, Astagatra Building, Lemhannas RI on Wednesday (6/11).

The Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI, Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P., stated that in terms of the global economy, the escalation of conflict in the Middle East raises concerns about the stability of the world oil price, which has a direct impact on global economic conditions, including Indonesia. “As a state with a high level of energy dependence, Indonesia must be concerned about the fluctuations in oil prices caused by this conflict,” the Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI remarked.

Oil price fluctuations caused by conflicts in the Middle East can increase the burden on the state budget and affect the prices of goods and services in the domestic market. Meanwhile, regarding national security, the geopolitical dynamics in the Middle East can lead to more significant risks, like the rise of terrorism.

The discussion group is expected to produce policy recommendations to anticipate the impacts of the Middle East conflict on Indonesia. “Hopefully, this discussion can become an initial and significant

Attending the event as speakers were a Professor at the Faculty of Humanities of the University of Indonesia and Head of the Middle East and Islamic Studies Program, Prof. Yon Machmudi, Ph.D.; Lecturer at the Department of International Relations of University of Indonesia, Agung Nurwijoyo, M.Sc.; Researcher at the Department of International Relations of the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), Pieter Pandie; Director of the Middle East at the Directorate General of Asia Pacific and Africa of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ahrul Tsani Fathurrahman; and Head of the Terrorism Studies Program at the School of Strategic and Global Studies of University of Indonesia, M. ## Asta Cita as Lemhannas RI's Guidance in Performing its Duties

JAKARTA - "Superman is not that great, but superteam is great. That if we collaborate well with one another. Thus, under my leadership, we must work through teamwork," the governor of Lemhannas RI, Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si. stated. The statement was made during the Governor's briefing at the Gadjah Mada Auditorium on Monday (11/11).

As previously announced, President Prabowo Subianto and Vice President Gibran Rakabuming's government vision is Moving Forward Together Toward Golden Indonesia 2045, which is further translated into Asta Cita as guidance to achieve national goals. The governor of Lemhannas RI stated that Asta Cita must be used as guidance in performing its duties to reach the national goals.

Therefore, the governor of Lemhannas RI emphasized some measures that Lemhannas RI can take. First, the Deputy Office for National-Level Leader Education must review and evaluate the education process that has been conducted. Second, the Deputy Office for Strategic Studies must materialize strategic studies to become both an intellectual exercise and a policy. Third, the Deputy Office for Strengthening of National Values must design and implement strengthening of national values programs as an effort to nurture national ideology.

Fourth, the National Resilience Measurement Laboratory must promptly improve and evaluate the methodology and data collection mechanism required to produce the national resilience index measurement. Fifth, Lemhannas RI must immediately prepare a strategic plan document for the next five years as an elaboration of the National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN) of 2025-2029.

"Let's eliminate sectoral egos. We all stand in the same direction, so there will be no unhealthy competition when developing Lemhannas RI," the governor of Lemhannas RI concluded.

JAKARTA - The National Resilience Institute of the Republic of Indonesia (Lemhannas RI) held ceremony to celebrate National Heroes Day at the Central Field of Lemhannas RI, on Monday (11/11). Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si acted as inspector of the ceremony.

The theme for commemorating Heroes' Day in 2024 is "Follow Your Heroes, Love Your Country". "Follow your heroes" means that all thoughts and actions must always be inspired by the spirit of heroism. As for "Love Your Country" which means whatever form of service we must make a meaningful contribution to the progress of Indonesia.

In the speech of the Indonesian Minister of Social Affairs, Saifullah Yusuf, which was read by the Governor of Lemhannas RI, it was said that as a nation, we must be grateful for the all heroes, with all their sacrifices, succeeded in forming the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia (NKRI).

"Especially in this unpredictable global situation, loving one's country also means strengthening social ties of solidarity, strengthening social unity and solidarity, reviving the social value of brotherhood among the nation's children," said the Governor of Lemhannas RI reading the message of the Minister of Social Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia.

The Governor of Lemhannas RI stated that the process of struggle to build the nation differs from year to year.

This is related to changes in the strategic environment of the Indonesian nation.

The solemn ceremony began with the raising of the Red and White flag, a moment of silence, reading of the text of Pancasila, the Preamble to the 1945 Constitution, messages from heroes, and remarks from the Indonesian Minister of Social Affairs, and ended with a prayer.

Governor of Lemhannas RI Expects Indonesia's National Resilience to Be Further Strengthened

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI signed a memorandum of understanding and cooperation agreement with a number of agencies on Tuesday (12/11), at the Dwiwarna Purwa Building, Lemhannas RI. Memorandum of understanding signed by the Governor of Lemhannas RI Dr. H. TB. Ace Hasan Syadzily, M.Si organizes collaboration between Lemhannas RI and Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University, North Sumatra State Islamic University (UNISU), North Sumatra Islamic University (UISU), Semarang University (USM), Kalimantan Institute of Technology (ITK), Institute of Social and Management Sciences, Indonesian Mandala College of Administrative Sciences (STIAM), Islamic Students Association (HMI), Regional Public Company for Drinking Water Jaya (PAM Jaya), and Foundation for Peaceful Indonesia Efforts (UID).

This activity is a manifestation of Lemhannas RI's commitment as an institution tasked by the state to provide education for prospective national level leaders, carry out studies as a state think tank institution, and carry out the strengthening of national values to synergize with universities and elements of society so that they can support the Indonesia's progress.

"We feel that collaboration with the community, universities and civil society institutions is very important because the task of advancing the nation is not only the task of the state, but a collective task to be able to work in the context of building collaboration so that how we can advance this nation is in accordance with our respective roles." respectively," said the Governor of Lemhannas RI.

The Governor of Lemhannas RI hopes that there will be an exchange of experts from both universities and other agencies as well as sharing and exchanging information, including studies carried out. "We would certainly be very happy if ladies and gentlemen periodically conveyed various studies addressed to us, then we will review them again for the sake of positive input for adopting the policies of our beloved Republic," concluded the Governor of Lemhannas RI.

The agenda for the RDP is to explain Lemhannas RI's 100-day work plan, Lemhannas RI's strategic study regarding national, regional and international geopolitical dynamics, as well as the situation and conditions of Indonesia's national resilience ahead of the 2024 regional elections.

Regarding Lemhannas RI's 100 working day plan, the Governor of Lemhannas RI stated that the plan was divided into seven structures. First, Lemhannas RI will start providing education for prospective national leaders in January 2025 with the theme "Accelerating Inclusive and Sustainable Economic Growth" which is adapted to the theme of the 2025 RKP. Second, Lemhannas RI is also conducting studies related to current issues which will start in November 2024.

Third, Lemhannas RI will organize and prepare an evaluation of the assessment methodology by raising the topic of strengthening Indonesia's economic diplomacy to the national strategy for poverty alleviation. Fourth, Lemhannas RI will start implementing structured strengthening of national values by educating trainers and facilitators through a training program for trainers. Apart from that, Lemhannas RI will implement the Lemhannas goes to Campus Program which targets the younger generation. The fifth work plan structure is to measure the national resilience index through structuring methodology, data measurement mechanisms and variable indicators for measuring the national resilience index. Finally, Lemhannas RI will carry out institutional strengthening by updating regulations by improving Presidential Decree 98 of 2016 concerning Lemhannas RI and re-proposing a national resilience law.
